

Mr. E. H. Howe, of Norway, is an authorized agent of the Advertiser, and any notices or advertisements will be duly represented by the editor and publisher.

Gov. Coburn's will was probated, Tuesday at Shownag, and allowed.

Oxford County Pomona Grange will meet with Cooked River Grange, Feb. 10th, at 10 o'clock, a. m.

The Spring term of the Rumford Central High School begins Monday, February 23rd, under the instruction of C. M. Hutchins.

C. O. Stuckney, local editor of the Bridgton News, is now the owner of a note-book once used by Artemus Ward, when he was reporter on the Cleveland Plaindealer. It was presented Mr. Stuckney by Horace Maxwell, ex-editor of the Waterbury, who was administrator of the estate of Charles F. Brown.

An enterprising Oxford county man, Mr. Silas M. Locke, formerly of Mexico, has taken great pains to publish a book of literature in that excellent little monthly, the American Apiculturist, Salem, Mass., now in its third year. He makes a splendid magazine.

E. E. Hastings of Fryeburg has pure blooded Langshires, Plymouth Rock eggs for sale. See ad. These fowls are probably the best in the County as the strain from which they came have been secured nearly all the members in which they completed. Eggs securely packed per sitting $1.00. Those who are interested in the subject, Mr. Hastings and we will guarantee that they will find him square and honorable in his deal.

We are pleased to announce the death of Arthur M. Hawkins, one of the authors of our European Letters, which occurred in London, Eng., last Saturday. He, in company with his brother, E. D. Hawkins, was to have sailed for New York this week, but about ten days ago Arthur was prostrated with fever which developed into typhoid pneumonia and resulted fatally. The deceased was well known to the readers of this paper, as he was the author of several interesting series of letters; among which were the "Vacation Rambles," which appeared a little over a year ago. We sincerely sympathize with the bereaved family and friends.

The February number of the Godey's Lady's Book is at hand. It contains four steel plate illustrations, a colored, a number of process cuts, a piece of music and thirty of literature. In this number are liberal illustrations of three stories, "The Girl of the Year," "Dreeding of the Veil," and "The Story of an Engagement." Beside these are a number of short stories, "The Work and Fashion Department," which are well worth the price of the magazine. 1008 Chestnut St., Phila., Pa.

There promises to be an interesting litigation over the estate of Charles E. Hill, who died in Yokohama, Japan, on Oct. 9th, aged 33 years, and who was buried at Bay Ridge, N. Y., the 25th.

Left an estate estimated at $100,000, according to the Chinese and Japan in the tea trade. Mr. Hill came to Syracuse three years ago last summer and successfully abducting his son Frank, who was with his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth C. Hill. Mr. Hill is the daughter of the late Henry P. Adams of Syracuse. She met Hill in her maidhood, while he was on a visit from China in 1862. He returned home and they were married there. She came on a visit, where twice was taken to her. Family discussions are said to have followed her return to China, and she separated from her husband. For a divorce was begun in the Connecticut courts by Mrs. Hill, in which she was not successful. After Hill came to Syracuse and abducted the boy he returned to China. Mrs. Hill is said to have obtained a divorce from Mrs. Hill only three days before his death, and was to have married shortly after. She is said to be a woman of beauty and wealth, and to be formerly of Syracuse. His will has been probated in China, his only home. The papers in the divorce proceedings were served on Mrs. Hill, it is said, about a year ago by Hill's attorney in Maine. She did not know that they were at the time. It is now understood that desertion is charged. The put in no answer. It is said that a decree was granted. Mrs. Hill had a block of dwellings in Shanghai, valued at $50,000, which Hill put in her name, but the rents of which she did not receive. It is thought that all of the preliminary of the divorce proceedings were not complied with and that Mrs. Hill can claim her share of the estate as well as her son Frank. Mrs. Hill's counsel, it is understood, will take immediate action towards securing her rights.—World.

About two miles from Naples on the straight road to Bridgton, a little in from the road, are very fine three story wooden residence. When it was caused to be built a few years ago, it was ornamented with strange and rare Chinese curiosities, including several Chinese gods. Captain Reuben Hill, his brother, Mr. Hill, accompanied by last summer Chinese servants, visited Naples and made arrangements to make that place his permanent residence. When he returned to China to settle up his business, he was found to have been murdered. His body, badly mutilated, was found in a ditch. But death, relentless to rich and poor alike, lurking ever in the pathway of unfortunates, has now struck him down even at the very moment of the completion of his plans.

WEST STOKESDALE. Marcus M. Horne has made mother a flying visit, and has returned to Turner Falls, Mass., where he is overseer in a paper mill.

Ephraim McKean and Walter McKean have gone to Shelburne, N. H. for work. Alonzo Adams is at work at No. Lovell. Everett McKean is at work at Battlet, N. H. Sylvester Abbott is in the lake region.

Seymour C. McAllister has returned to this town from Sweden where he has been for the past three years.

Mrs. Ayer has returned from the West. It is thought she has cancer on her face.

Alvan Gammon is at work at No. Lovell making sleds, canes, etc.

David McKean has been to Pinhook for a load of white oak for William Gammon.

Wm. Gammon and Walter Barker have been to Bethel with a load of sleds and axes. Any one wishing a good axe handle or good stick just call on Wm. F.

Are You Tired of Being Sick? We want to say a word to the men, women and girls who work in stores, offices and factories. There are hundreds of thousands of you in the country. Very few of you are well. You are shut up too much and eat too much. In this way you get sick. Your blood is bad, your digestion poor, your head aches, your nerves are all out of gear. You have no stomach, and you are all out of order. Parker's Tonic has cured hundreds of such cases. It is pure, sure and pleasant.

ALBANY. Men are shoveling the drifts this Tuesday morning for the doctor to get through to Mrs. Isaac Wardwell, who has serious attacks of swooning. Mrs. Charlotte Cummings is much better.

Justice Asplaval is said to be the "accepted bidder for carrying the mail from Albany to Bethel."

Dexter Cummings has sold his large oxen and wishes to purchase a younger pair.

C. Fernald has lost a good two year old steer caused by stoppage.

Archibald S. Cole is doing a good business in canvassing for a celebrated lamp, that is manufactured in Cincinnati, Ohio.

ENDOVER. R. S. Goe of Bangor and Pingree of Salem, Mass., of the firm of Goe & Pingree, lumbermen, started for the Upper Dam Richardson Lakes Tuesday. A. W. Thomas of Bangor House accompanied them with his team. They will drive to Rangely if the ice holds out and return in about ten days. All Locke's teams are working hard.

Cal Turner discharged a number of men last week.

The old folks are preparing to have a big time here on the fourth of March. There will be a very good dinner, and they are going to have a grand time. The correct amount has been taken charge of the door at the rear of the building.

A. W. Thomas has taken a contract to haul twelve thousand feet of lumber from Camp Whitney, Richardson Lakes.

BETHEL. There was a mistake in the item last week in regard to the amount of business done by the butcher, Milton Parker. The correct amount he retained was, 65 cattle, 194 lambs, 10 calves, 10 pork, 1500 lbs. poultry, 1700 lbs. of fish.

William Garland, also his sister Minnie are sick.

School closes this week. Spring term will begin Feb. 24th. The winter term has been large and the prospect for the spring term is very bright.

There is to be a Big Boys dance at the Rialto the 4th of March as I understand by the management. They are laying themselves out for the crowning of the dance. The boys will stay at home thinking there will not be a dance. The hall is large and all can come. The hall is large and all can come. The hall is large and all can come.

Wilson Hammonds has gone away for treatment at the hospital. He has not improved in health since his return from the West.

Those who have arrived from Canada, and they say they are a bang up good lot.

It is now expected that they will remain in the Cantata of Esther, by request in the near future, that they will be called upon to enjoy a rich treat in listening to a mixed concert to be given by the home talent of Bethel.

Mount Adams Lodge, No. 31, will hold their public installation, Feb. 10th, the Rialto next Tuesday eve, 8 o'clock, and all who wish to join, will be generally, and all who wish to join, will be generally, and all who wish to join, will be generally.

Business lively at the depot; 107 cars passed.

The side track is continually lined with cars, which are being filled with pork, sugar, and other goods. Probably the number of cars loaded fifty cars per month are loaded here.

Ansley Dudley soon contemplates taking a trip to the New Orleans Exposition.

Our jeweler, Mr. E. Stevens has made arrangements with a New York firm, so that he is now able to furnish customers with any pattern of jewelry, and all who wish to see the new cuts and prices can be examined at his store.

Messrs. Houghton, Crockett and Cole are each preparing a promising coal. Isn't it time to have a little trial of speed on the ice?

The citizens of Woodstock are looking forward toward the day when the lot of the citizens of the town will rise above the town. The heights of Mr. Christopher on the hill of the hamlet in the eye of Bryan's waters. "Let 'em look."

Mr. Charles B. Brooks of the adjoining town of Greenwood, the former owner of the mill, has now in his possession a white charger said to have done service under Gen. Lee in the closing scenes of the Rebellion.

MARRIED IN BRIDGTON last Monday morning at the bride's father's, Wm. H. Atwood, Geo. H. Watkins of the Oxford Democrat, to Miss Edna Atwood. They immediately took the cars for New York.

Stanley Bisbee and Josie Price, students at Coburn Classical Institute, have been home on a vacation. H.

CANTON. The Free Will Baptist Quarterly Meeting was held here this week Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Large quantities of wood are being hauled across the pond from Hartford to the pulp mill.

The sons of Mr. John E. Thompson have 200 eggs now in process of hatching in their patent incubator, which they recently purchased at the cost of about $125.

Prof. Rhuland has been in town teaching the people how to manage vicious horses. He is at Norway now.

A. E. Bradford is teaching a singing school.

U. S. Pension Agents were in town investigating claims.

C. M. Haines and Leslie Wardwell recently came from Livermore Falls, have been arrested on the charge of selling liquor without a U. S. license. They were taken to Portland and will be tried there.

It is reported that Leslie has paid a fine on a similar charge before.

EAST STOKESDALE. Our school closes this week. We have had a very good term, and the position taught by Miss Mary Millett of Waterford.

H. M. Parker of this town cut his head twelve days ago. It was the same old story, "forgot that the clothes line was there." The axe struck him just over the eyebrow, laying bare the bone.

The K. P.'s of this town will give an oyster supper the 17th of this month. A good time is anticipated.

Our gunsmith, D. D. Merrill, is at present engaged in making a cane gun. It is put together in a workmanlike and artistic manner. It is a breech loader, and the action and device for ejecting the shells and the lock action, are all his own invention.

The "Pirate" has been confined to the house lately with rheumatism, but is at present able to be out.

Our old soldiers in the section are talking of establishing a G. A. R. Post in this town.

Elder Merrill came near breaking one of his legs a few days since. He was hauling a load of wood down a very steep hill on a large hand sled, and the sled got the best of him and caused him to fall. The result was a broken leg. The result was a broken leg. The result was a broken leg.

Mark Tupper stopped with one night last week and I fed him on mice pie, eggs, etc. He was very much pleased. E. O. K. Waterhouse and wife from Norway, were up to see her mother, Mrs. D. Grant, and other friends last Sunday and returned home Sunday.

John H. Martin from Denmark is cutting and building the top of a barn. J. F. Emmons has bought two pairs of white faced yearling steers, one pair nicely matched. He would like to see the other pair of white faces if they are well matched.

I learn that Moses Yates, 80 years of age, took his bed last Sunday. I never heard of his being sick before.

Last Friday, a week ago, David and Moses Hanson were driving a pulley on a driving shaft. Mr. Morse was doing the driving while Mr. Hanson was holding the shaft. Mr. Morse delivered a heavy blow with the sledge hammer on the driving shaft which struck Hanson in the forehead. Hanson for a moment was supposed to be dead, but he recovered.

Services were held at the new church at Locke's Mills, for the first time Jan. 26th. An instructive and inspiring sermon by Rev. C. B. Hannaford, preached from Numbers 23:23, "Blessed be the land which is the land of the living." There were services last Sabbath afternoon held by Rev. C. Allen. The church is completely out of the wood.

Albert Stevens is very busy with construction at his home.

Dr. Oakes of Lewiston was in town last week and performed an operation upon the throat of Mr. J. M. Buck's boy, and also treated Mrs. Wallace Ryterson.

FRYEBURG. The Dumb Sociable which was to have been at the New Church Jan. 30, was postponed without date, on account of the weather.

John C. Southwick, purchasing agent of Earl Bros., Chicago, made his mother a short visit last week.

Sunday evening, owing to the storm, there was no service at the Congregational or New Church.

Feb. 23, John S. Barrows left for Boston, where he will attend the Lowell School of Practical Design connected with the Lowell Institute.

Signor Bosco, "the renowned wizard and humorist," gave three good evening entertainments here last week. 30c below zero and snow blowing. M.

GRAFTON. Albert F. Brooks and Richmond Davis are hauling timber and landing it on Cambridge river.

Mrs. Moses McAllister, who has been in very poor health for some time, is gaining slowly and is able to ride out in this town and among the ruins of the homestead of Milton R. Howard. There were about thirty present and seemed to enjoy themselves very much.

I have heard we are to have a neighbor on the place known as the L. W. Bennett place.

Miss Eva McAllister, who has been away teaching school, returned home last week.

A. M. Whitman is authorized to receive subscriptions and act as correspondent in this section.

Business is generally suspended on the 6th of T. R. today, Jan. 28th, on account of the storm so far the worst one of the season.

There will be a lecture at the Union church on Feb. 7th at 7:30 p. m., on "Ancient and Modern Norway," by W. E. Skilling, etc.

Miss Annie and Sarah Gould left here for Portland, Jan. 31st, visiting friends at Portland and Lynn, en route.

Derius Bennett, who has been an inmate of the insane asylum for a number of years, died on Jan. 24th, with pneumonia. His remains were taken here for burial. The services were held at the house of Mr. Gammons, by Rev. A. L. Grindley, Dec. vii, 2.

GREENWOOD. Jacob Emmons, 80 yrs. of age, drove a oxen and what was worse one pair of oxen, a very good team, to the mill. W. Paris, 85 below zero, blowing a gale.

Gilbert Yates' wife, little girl and baby, all of whom the wife is very sick with pneumonia.

Mark Tupper stopped with one night last week and I fed him on mice pie, eggs, etc. He was very much pleased. E. O. K. Waterhouse and wife from Norway, were up to see her mother, Mrs. D. Grant, and other friends last Sunday and returned home Sunday.

John H. Martin from Denmark is cutting and building the top of a barn. J. F. Emmons has bought two pairs of white faced yearling steers, one pair nicely matched. He would like to see the other pair of white faces if they are well matched.

I learn that Moses Yates, 80 years of age, took his bed last Sunday. I never heard of his being sick before.

Last Friday, a week ago, David and Moses Hanson were driving a pulley on a driving shaft. Mr. Morse was doing the driving while Mr. Hanson was holding the shaft. Mr. Morse delivered a heavy blow with the sledge hammer on the driving shaft which struck Hanson in the forehead. Hanson for a moment was supposed to be dead, but he recovered.

Services were held at the new church at Locke's Mills, for the first time Jan. 26th. An instructive and inspiring sermon by Rev. C. B. Hannaford, preached from Numbers 23:23, "Blessed be the land which is the land of the living." There were services last Sabbath afternoon held by Rev. C. Allen. The church is completely out of the wood.

Albert Stevens is very busy with construction at his home.

Dr. Oakes of Lewiston was in town last week and performed an operation upon the throat of Mr. J. M. Buck's boy, and also treated Mrs. Wallace Ryterson.

On Monday evening, Feb. 23, John Swain and Miss Georgia L. drew were united in marriage at the residence of the bride, by the Rev. J. P. Deane. The ceremony was much regretted by the bride and groom, as they were both well known to the community.

HAVERFORD. If the County Buildings should be built at Norway and that town should become situated within the County Buildings have to correspond with the other public buildings.

The Old Folks Party at the Buckfield House for the 29th was postponed on account of the traveling. It was a great disappointment to many who left home for the party.

NORTH NEWRY. The steam mill is running on the same principle as before, saving spool stock and doing stock.

The singers at the Christmas Festival consisted of W. D. Kilgore, Sarah A. Kilgore who played the organ and W. W. Kilgore the cornet, assisted by their friend, Mr. H. P. Thurston.

Joe Gibbs while cutting birch had a two fall on him and hurt him badly. He was at work for Mr. Ellenwood.

John Searls is very sick with lung fever and his recovery is considered very doubtful.

Bad colds are the epidemic.

A. F. Ellingwood has given up his job of cutting and hauling birch for Matt Thurston.

Mrs. S. R. Wilber is sick with a very bad cold.

SCHOOL. School is closed after a term of eight weeks.

Jim Bicknell is hauling wood from the Preston Lake farm.

J. C. B. F. Head is turning croquet and brush boxes.

Mrs. A. E. Mason who has been sick over a year with lung trouble, is improving.

E. D. Heald is still at work for G. A. Barton, Buckfield.

Miss Sadie Jack is very feeble. She has been confined to the house all winter.

Clark Record is in the hen business.

Miss Anna Heald is improving.

Charles Flagg and Preston Heald are cutting wood for the County Buildings.

Elroy C. Farrar cut his foot a few weeks ago and is having a severe time.

Elva and Maude Heald are learning to dance.

L. Turner and son have bought the Fred Barrows stand.

The Heald Brothers attended the obsequies of their brother-in-law, Charles T. Davis, who died in Lewiston, Jan. 27th.

Cyrus DeCoster and wife are here on a visit. Mr. DeCoster is in poor health.

H. H. M.

BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength, and wholesomeness. No adulteration. It is the only baking powder that is economical than the ordinary kind, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold everywhere.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 100 Wall St., N. Y.

WEST SUMNER. Though the weather was very unfavorable and stormy, there was a large gathering at Barrow Post camp Jan. 24th, and all expressed themselves well pleased with the entertainment.

Their new Commander, G. M. Small is held in highest esteem. There were several fine recitations, vocal and instrumental music and short speeches. The ration was good enough and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen, and why should it not? What would our country have today had it not been for the soldier? To be sure the soldier did not do it all but most certainly he was the greatest sufferer and to spare. Such gatherings seem to best kindle and more sympathetic feelings between the soldier and citizen,

